Here's How Daly City Voted Tues.

Officials Praise Local Air Raid Drill

Daly City's civilian defense army, trained and equipped to protect life and property here in case of an enemy air raid or other major disaster, was commended highly by state and federal OCD officials following a city-wide drill here, Thursday night.

All services in the local civilian defense organization were called out to serve during the hour's air raid drill that had eighteen incidents. The incidents required attention of first aid teams, air raid wardens, Daly City Fire department and its auxiliary companies, Daly City Police department and ts auxiliary officers, and the demolition squad. The drill was held under the close scrutiny of twelve men representing federal, state, and county governmental offices pertinent to civilian defense. Larry Price, who headed the group as observer-in-charge, praised Daly City's set-up and rated it as "above the average". Price holds office in the Regional Office of Civilian Defense as Veterans Representative in the eight western states. He added, however, that no official rating has been given in cities during this first inspection tour.

"This is just a preliminary tour we are making now," Price explained, "but there will be future inspections of all California defense councils at regular intervals. We are interested in the technical service of the volunteers this time, and Daly City really has a fine looking set-up."

Three changes at the control center in the basement of the city hall were suggested to the Daly City Defense Council by Price. He advised them to barricade the windows in the control room, enlarge the control room by taking out temporary partitions in the basement, and use a larger city map for the control board.

Arthur J. Bodien, director of the local Civilian Defense Council, was also pleased with the showing made by local volunteers during the hour-long drill.

The inspection team spent the entire day in Daly City examining water mains, gas mains, and all other utilities, and prepared two of the incidents for the drill.

The two incidents given by the board called out all services as both were of major importance. One incident described Colombo

165 Youths Face Induction In Nov.

One of the largest single calls yet for selectee soldiers from Daly City Draft Board No. 103 will be made, this month, as 165 youths face induction, according to an announcement by Dr. J. C. McGovern, chairman of the local board.

The call for 165 men in this area will be the only quota scheduled for the local board during the month of November. Mrs. Isabelle Flynn, chief clerk in the selective service office, said that the selectees will report for induction some time during the latter part of the month. Work at the draft office has been directed at preparing selectees to fill the large quota.

"We have already begun to draft married men without children in this board area," Dr. McGovern said. "Our 1-A material is just about out, and we'll start to reclassify a large number of the registrants now in Group 3, class 3."

"Single men with dependents, however, will be called before married men, probably by next month. We are getting the married men without children ready, and separating their papers according to status. For instance, married men without children whose wives are now working are one group. Married men without children whose wives are not working are in another."

The married men in the first group will be called first, and then followed by those whose wives are not working at present.

Daly City Host To Earl Warren Monday

Today's governor-elect of California, Earl Warren, was an honored guest in Daly City, Monday, as he wound up his successful gubernatorial campaign at a luncheon meeting held at Shorty Robert's on Junipero Serra boulevard.

More than one hundred local officials and citizens, and prominent county and state personalities heard an "eleventh hour" campaign address by California's non-partisan leader. He assured the local audience that he would return again soon for another visit.

"I'm going to get around to see the people of this great state of ours, and discuss with them our vital war-time problems," Warren declared.

Mayor A. J. Gaggero of Daly City officially welcomed the governor-elect, and introduced him as

Council Supports Petition On Board

Support to a petition circulated and signed by many local citizens —demanding a War Price and Rationing board within Daly City— was given by the city council, Monday night, at a special meeting.

Emphasizing the need for a rationing board here to eliminate repeated trips to South San Francisco for ration permits, the city council adopted a resolution approving the petition. A committee of three local citizens was named, and they were authorized to present the petition to the regional Office of Price Administration for action. The committee consists of Joe Sarto, A. J. Bodien, and James Schultz.

The resolution asks for a board to be established here to take care of Daly City, Colma district, Colma incorporated (formerly Lawndale), Sharp Park, and "contiguous coastal towns in the county".

The approaching ration of gasoline, which will go into effect Sunday, November 22, was cited in the resolution as a reason for the

Ready? HereComes Gasoline Rationing

By BOB BAKER

Registration of all cars for gasoline rationing here has been postponed until Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, November 12, 13, and 14 by an order from national OPA headquarters, War Price and Rationing board No. 31-4 announced, this week.

The registration was originally scheduled for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of next week, but delay in getting application blanks to gasoline consumers made it necessary to set the dates ahead three days. This will not affect the date when gasoline rationing goes into effect, November 22, officials said.

Registration in Daly City will be held at the following schools: Crocker, 649 Bellevue avenue; Woodrow Wilson primary, 43 Miriam street; Jefferson elementary, 14 Alemany street, Colma. These schools will be closed during the three days of registration, November 12, 13, and 14.

In preparing for the rationing, county officials disclosed that a temporary rationing office may be set up in Daly City to supplement the work of the district board in South San Francisco and for the convenience of Daly City applicants. Three new board members will be added, all from Daly City. However, the county board has not passed approval of the names as yet.

Application blanks are available

Colma C. D. Workers Are Receiving Helmets

All civilian defense workers in Colma incorporated are being issued helmets, this week. This completes their necessary equipment for community defense. Gas masks have already been issued to Colma volunteers.

Helmets were purchased from funds of the Civilian Defense Council, which were obtained through a city-wide scrap metal drive in Colma recently.

An expenditure of the city for war-time preparation, the newly purchased siren, will be connected up this week and ready for use when needed. The siren, which is of the newest and most modern design, can be heard over the entire area. It has been mounted on a tower, located near the town hall. Work on the building of the tower was volunteered by enthus-

Three Blazes Keep D. C. Firemen Busy

Three fires, two in the Crocker tract and one in the Vista Grande district, kept Daly City firemen and police officers busy over the week-end.

Rooms in the first flat at the home of Albert Larin, 471 Winchester street, were threatened by flames, Sunday, when a fire started in the rear of the garage. Companies 1 and 4 of the Daly City Fire department answered the alarm and extinguished the fire. Officers Ed Heim and Roland A. Petrocchi of the Daly City Police

The New Governor of California is Earl Warren, non-partisan candidate, who out-paced Olson in the race.

Uncle Sam Needs Tin--Give Yours!

The need for salvaging the millions of tons of tin that go into American homes each month in tin cans was directed to all housewives of Daly City, this week, as the local salvage committee continued their plea for more tin cans.

Primarily a housewife's responsibility in America's war effort, every tin can, as soon as it is emptied, should be set aside and given to the tin collectors when they call. Grammar school children of all Daly City schools are collecting the tin from local housewives.

Each school in the Jefferson Elementary School district has organized a contingent of salvage officers among the teachers. They are organized by teachers in the school district, and each pupil is assigned to a block in the district of the school attended.

Each week the Record is publishing the names of children who pick up the tin cans in each neighborhood. Those who live in the Crocker tract in Daly City, should refer to the October 22 Record for the names of tin collectors in their block; those who live in the south end or the Jefferson district, refer to the October 29

More Than 3,000 Cast Their Ballots

Daly City voters, more than 3,000 of them, went to the polls, Tuesday, to participate in the first war-time general election since World War I. Unlike the state as a whole, the majority cast their ballots for Culbert L. Olson for governor. Earl Warren, California's new governor, received 1,398 votes in Daly City, while Olson got 1.919.

On State Proposition No. 1, the "Hot Cargo" bill, this community gave 2,108 "No" votes, and only 777 "Yes". San Mateo county, however, voted "Yes" on Proposition No. 1. Incomplete tabulations, yesterday, indicated that the answer on No. 1 for the state as a whole was definitely "Yes".

Two well-known local men went into office in San Mateo county as a result of Tuesday's election. John J. Fahey jr., native of this community, and son of Councilman John J. Fahey sr., was elected justice of the peace for the First Township over Judge Wade H. Clay; while Ralph C. MacArthur, former resident, and businessman here, is now tax collector for San Mateo county, winning over John W. Poole. Both Fahey jr. and MacArthur expressed appreciation to the many Daly City and Colma voters who gave them support.

Turnout of voters here, Tuesday, was better than 50 per cent. Breakdown of the balloting showed the following:

GOVERNOR—Daly City, 1,919 for Olson; 1,398 for Warren; Colma unincorporated, 160 for Olson; 267 for Warren; Town of Colma, 30 for Olson; 52 for Warren.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR — Daly City, 2,088 for Incumbent Ellis E. Patterson; 1,113 for Fred Houser, Republican candidate; unincorporated Colma, 184 for Patterson, 217 for Houser; Town of Colma, 37 for Patterson, 42 for Houser.

SECRETARY OF STATE — Daly City, 1,860 for Paul Peek, 1,071 for Frank Jordan; unincorporated Colma, 172 for Peek, 195 for Jordan; Town of Colma, 30 for Peek, 46 for Jordan.

ATTORNEY GENERAL—Daly City, 2,029 for Robert W. Kenny, 809 for Wallace Ware; unincorporated Colma, 180 for Kenny, 164 for Ware; Town of Colma, 39 for Kenny, 31 for Ware.

STATE PROPOSITION NO. 1 —Daly City, 777 Yes, 2,108 No; unincorporated Colma, 145 Yes, 208 No; Town of Colma, 28 Yes, 39 No.

TAX COLLECTOR—Daly City, 2,186 for MacArthur, 652 for Poole; unincorporated Colma, 221 for MacArthur, 132 for Poole; Town

Gehrig Receives Certificate of Merit

Uncle Sam's Navy won't be wanting for volunteers as long as civilian Navy recruiters like Joseph Gehrig, 342 Irvington street, are on the job! Gehrig has been directly responsible for sending the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station more than ten applicants, in the past few months. In addition, he has given out valuable information to many others.

In recognition of this outstanding assistance to the San Francisco Navy Recruiting station in the procurement of men, the Navy, this week, awarded Gehrig with a Certificate of Merit.

Gehrig has been cooperating with the Civilian Navy Recruiter plan, since August 15, 1942. He gives out booklets and information regarding enlistment in the Navy and helps interested men to determine to which part of the Navy they are best suited. He has carried out his work for the Navy in Daly City, San Francisco, and Berkeley, where he is employed as a tool and die maker.

Gehrig's enthusiasm for the Navy comes naturally enough, as he was formerly in the Navy himself.

Edward Joseph Gehrig, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gehrig, is now in

JEFFERSON UNION HIGH SCHOOL ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK PROGRAM, NOVEMBER 10

Public Schools' Week will be observed,next Tuesday evening, November 10, from 7 to 9 p. m. at Jefferson Union high school.

Parents and friends of the students are invited to attend the open house. An opportunity will be given for the parents to meet and talk with the various teachers from 7 to 8 p. m.

A special program will be presented in the auditorium at 8 o'clock. Howard McDonald, director of personnel in the San Francisco schools, will be the principal speaker of the evening. The subject of his talk will be "Education and the War Effort".

Several music selections and a panel discussion on "Motion Pictures and Youth", given by students from the public speaking department, will round out the program. "The Heavens Are Telling" from the Creation, an Oratorio by Haydn, and "God of All Nature", arranged from Tschaikowsky's Fifth Symphony, will be sung by the high school chorus.

Students participating in the discussion will be Carole Bryant, Walter Cavagnaro, Ralph Capps, Mary Sue Denton, Angelo Ditty, Gerald Martin, Dolores Mardeciech, Shirley Rice, Mary Seidel, Robert Sinclair, and Gwendolyn Stegman.

The orchestra, under the direction of Oscar Busch, will be composed of Gloria Tooth, piano; George Percival, Genevieve Thomas, Arthur Roberts, Vincetta Turtureci, Lawrence Russo, and Edgar Colby, violins; Fred Waterman, Gene Snow, trumpets; Georgia Busch, cello; Miss Jones, flute; Thelma Tvedten, oboe; Angelo Ditty, clarinet; Emile Lemoine, horn; Eugene Grant, trombone; and Lowell Coy, tympani.

William Powell Stars In New Film

William Powell returns to familiar ground in M-G-M's "Crossroads", a story of blackmail and intrigue which opens tonight at the Daly City theatre. Long absent from serious dramatic roles, Powell is afforded an excellent opportunity in the film and makes the most of it. Hedy Lamarr is teamed with Powell for the first time, while Claire Trevor and Basil Rathbone lead one of the year's outstanding supporting casts.

The action of the story takes place in Paris before the current war. Powell is a French diplomat happily married to Miss Lamarr. Just as he is made Ambassador to Brazil, an insidious blackmail plot is concocted against him by Rathbone and Miss Trevor. They present false proof that he is living under a false identity and is really a petty criminal who robbed and murdered a man fifteen years before. The situation of a man's past catching up with him to destroy all he holds dear is believably and most thrillingly presented, thanks to the expert direction of Jack Conway.

In the acting department the new picture shines with stellar brilliance.

Producer Edwin Knopf has shown careful judgment in tightening the story for a suspense effect. The sets are elaborate and the musical score by Bronislau Kaper lends just the right atmosphere to the story.

William Powell shows he has lost none of his flair for the dramatic and handles his difficult assignment with finesse. Miss Lamarr, looking more beautiful than ever in stunning creations by Kalloch, M-G-M designer, is sincere and dramatically effective as Powell's wife. Basil Rathbone and Claire Trevor are a smooth pair of blackmailers. Felix Bressart and Margaret Wycherly deserve special mention for their characterizations.

NEW ROMANTIC TEAM

A director's dream comes true when William Powell and Hedy Lamarr go into a clinch. That's exactly what they do in "Crossroads," new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer thriller which brings the two stars to the screen as a new romantic team. Above, Hedy and Bill get into the mood for a big love scene. The film is now playing at the Daly City theatre.

WAVES Open New Classification

To permit more women between 20 and 36 to serve in the Women's Naval Reserve, the WAVES have opened a new "general service" classification according to Lieutenant Tova L. Petersen, in charge of recruiting WAVES in the Twelfth Naval district.

Under the new program women will be enlisted without special assignments and sent to nationally famous universities for naval indoctrination courses. While they are in training the authorities will have an opportunity to determine the type of naval activity for which these women are best fitted.

Library To Observe Children's Book Wk.

"Forward With Books" is the theme of Children's Book Week for 1942, according to Mrs. Jean O'Rourk, librarian at the Daly City public library, 6351 Mission street. She announced today that the local library would observe Book Week, November 15-21, with appropriate displays and decorations.

Mrs. O'Rourk outlined the purposes of Book Week as follows:

1. To encourage in boys and girls the love of books.
2. To increase public appreciation of children's books.
3. To increase and maintain support of public book facilities.
4. To encourage home ownership and companionship through books.

The Daly City library has an attractive children's reading room and a large selection of juvenile literature.

Jay Jensen, affiliated with Mount Olivet cemetery, is now discharging the duties of director of civilian defense. He succeeds John Price, former director, who was this week sworn into the United States Navy. Since Price has not been called yet for active duty, he is still devoting his time to Colma's defense setup. Bradford S. Welsh, who was Price's assistant director, is now serving in the United States Merchant Marine service.

Council Supports Petition For Board

need of a rationing board within Daly City.

"We'll use up a good part of our gasoline allotment making trips to South San Francisco, to say nothing of the added wear on tires," is a statement made by many Daly City ration applicants. When the first rationing board was set up in San Mateo county, a local board was set up here with offices in Daly City. Soon after the board began to function, county rationing officials abandoned the board and changed headquarters for this area to South San Francisco.

No action was taken, Monday night, to pass the emergency dimout ordinance. The measure is a city compliance with an army order to dimout areas visible from the sea, and it was passed by the council last week. However, City Attorney F. E. Hoffman later found the ordinance would be nullified until at least a four-fifths vote could be obtained. The measure was passed the first time with two councilmen being absent. It will, in all probability, be acted upon at Monday's regular meeting.

Creamery Owner Praises Firemen

In a letter to Fire Chief Andrew P. Chesney, A. E. Pulley, proprietor of Central Creamery, thanked the department for the speedy and efficient manner in which they extinguished the recent fire at the creamery. The letter is quoted below:

October 26, 1942

DALY CITY FIRE DEPARTMENT,
A. P. CHESNEY, FIRE CHIEF
Dear Mr. Chesney:

Inasmuch as it is impossible for me to contact each of the members of the Daly City Fire department, who responded to the alarm sent in last Sunday morning from the Central Creamery, I would consider it a favour if you would thank them for me for the efficient way in which they mastered the blaze.

It was just three minutes after the alarm was turned in that the fire department arrived on the scene and I can honestly say that had they arrived five or ten minutes later there is little they could have done to have saved our building and the two adjoining.

Thanking you for your own personal effort in our behalf.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) A. E. PULLEY,

MRS. SOARES DIES

Mrs. Isabel Maria Soares, a resident of Colma for more than 12 years, died Tuesday night, October 27, at her home at 88 Railroad avenue. She is survived by her husband, A. N. Soares; a son, Joseph Soares; and a grandson, DeWayne Soares. She was a member of the Portuguese society, Queen of St. Izabel.

Funeral services were held Friday morning from the W. C. Lasswell and company chapel, with requiem mass at 10 a. m. at Holy Angels church, Colma, and interment in Holy Cross cemetery.

"JOIN THE NAVY"

"Never in all history has the call for defenders of freedom been so urgent as at this moment.

"Brave men are needed—stouthearted men — men who would rather fight to stay free than live to be slaves.

"If that's the way you feel about it, your place right now is with the Navy—your Navy—in America's first line of attack — shoulder to shoulder with the red-blooded men of action who are determined to defeat the Axis, who are not only remembering Pearl Harbor but are doing something about it.

"There's a big job to be done. There's a big opportunity for the men who do it."

Signed:
FRANK KNOX,
Secretary of the Navy.

Of the $37,687.50 to be distributed in San Mateo county, $2,952.50 will go to Daly City, and $325.00 to the town of Lawndale on the basis of actual licenses issued.

An appeal for gift wrapping paper, ribbon, twine, and other gift package adornments was issued today by the San Mateo County Red Cross chapter, which needs these materials for use in wrapping Christmas packages for service men stationed within the San Mateo county area during the holidays.

Steuhler is now working on a construction project for the U. S. Army. Greyhound Makes Peninsula Changes

Complying with wishes of the Office of Defense Transportation to take every action necessary to get maximum use of all available equipment, Pacific Greyhound announces further changes in its Peninsula service.

Service will be concentrated on a minimum number of routes effective November 11. This adjustment will make available an additional number of buses to better serve the greatest number of Peninsula commuters.

F. W. Ackerman, vice president of Pacific Greyhound Lines, stated that in conforming with the O. D. T. regulations his company had already eliminated non-essential service, reduced the number of stops and lowered the operating speed of buses.

"Now to further conserve transportation," he said, "we are concentrating all our Peninsula service on the three main routes, "B", "G" and "M". It may be necessary for some commuters to travel a little further to board and alight from buses, but such inconvenience to a few will be outweighed by benefits to the many through release of buses from the "C", "H", "F" and "K" routes which will no longer be operated."

Ackerman emphasized Greyhound's determination to maintain adequate service for essential travelers. He urged, however, that travel for pleasure be eliminated, so that bus operations so vital to the war effort can be maintained.

department also responded.

An overheated oven at the home of Ernest Nahapiet, 251 Crocker avenue, caught fire, late Friday afternoon, but firemen from Companies 1 and 4 were there and had the fire out before it could make any headway. Mrs. Nahapiet praised the firemen for their efficiency.

Shortly after 9 p. m. Saturday, police officers went to investigate what might have been a Hallowe'en prank, a bonfire near the corner of Niantic street and Knowles avenue. Chief James G. Reardon, Sergeant Ricco Benedetti, and Arch Banfield responded, putting out the fire with an extinguisher from the city hall.

Carmen Amaya Returns To S. F. Opera House Nov. 8

Hailed as one of the greatest of flamenco dancers of all time, Carmen Amaya, twenty-year-old gypsy who made such a sensational success here, last year, returns to the San Francisco Opera House, Sunday afternoon, November 8, with her company of musicians, dancers and singers. She is being presented by the San Francisco Opera association.

Miss Amaya came to this country in 1941 with an awesome reputation to which such critical celebrities as Arturo Toscanini and Leopold Stokowski testified. The former stated: "Never in my life have I seen a dancer with such fire, rhythm and such a terrifying and wonderful personality."

It did not take long for New York to understand that these were understatements. Walter Terry of the Herald-Tribune dubbed her "the human Vesuvius". John Martin of the Times found her "speedy, intense, and brimming with physical excitement". And when she first entered the august Carnegie Hall, the World-Telegram's Robert Bagar reported: "Carmen Amaya made her debut in Carnegie Hall and left the place a smouldering ruin".

At the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War she left for a tour of South America and Mexico. Her success prompted her to take up residence in Buenos Aires, where a theatre was named for her and she became the toast of the "aficionados".

With her when she appears in San Francisco will be her sisters, Antonia and Leonora, papa Jose and brother Paco, cousin Sabicas, the celebrated guitarist, and pianist (non-relation) Raymond Sachse. Partnering her will be that famous Gypsy dancer, Antonio Triana.

Complete Revision of Peninsula Commutation Service

Effective November 11

Now to further conserve transportation we are concentrating service on a minimum number of routes. The through service heretofore operated on routes "C", "E", "F" and "K" will be eliminated. Peninsula service will hereafter be concentrated over the following main routes —"B", "G" and "M". This adjustment will make available an additional number of buses to better serve the greatest number of Peninsula commuters.

Throngs Attend Fall Festival

Throngs of Daly City people, and other friends of the parishioners, crowded booths at the Annual Fall Festival, sponsored by the parish of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, in a colorful three day bazaar held over the week-end at the H. H. Smith Lumber yard.

Delicious dinners were served to patrons of the refreshment booths, games were played, and a host of prizes were given away. Roy Thompson and Eugene V. Lynch were co-chairmen of the event and they had a large committee working under them. The affair represented a well planned program and was enjoyed by all present. Dancing was held, each night, and the Daly City Band presented a concert to the crowd, Sunday afternoon. The band was under the direction of George Brenner.

Reverend Adrian McKenna, who was in charge of the bazaar for the church, was well pleased with the fine turnout on all the days. He expressed appreciation to all who attended the affair and to everyone who worked on it. He conveyed thanks to the H. H. Smith Lumber yard for use of the building and to Clarence Fahy and J. McDonough for splendid support.

Prize winners of main cash awards were as follows: first prize, G. A. Lombard, 141 Flournoy street; second prize, Roche and company; third prize, Robert Gross, 3101 San Jose avenue; fourth prize, Mothers club; and fifth prize, Mrs. K. Core, 43 Wilson street.

Above action shot of Friday's game with Palo Alto high school at Jefferson field shows Jefferson's Bill Freeman (45) ripping off a sizeable gain. It was a day of tough luck for Coach Glenn South, since Freeman was injured in the game and is likely to be out for the rest of the season. In addition, the Indians lost to Palo Alto, 19 to 12.

When Jefferson clashes with San Jose high school tomorrow afternoon on the Jefferson turf, Indian hopes will be pinned on the hard-running freshman fullback, Tulio Picchi, (48), shown facing the camera in the above picture. He will be counted on largely for the Jeff running attack.

Freeman's injury, a pulled muscle in the calf, is not the only tough luck that dogs the Indians tomorrow when they face San Jose. Don Ekers, first string center, is on the sick list, and Bud Fellows, right guard, will be out of the game with an arm injury. Tomorrow's tilt at Jefferson field will start at 3:15 p. m.

KEY DRIVE NETS 190 LBS

Daly City not only presented the key to the city to the national scrap metal drive, but nearly everybody donated all their old keys, and the Salvage for Victory committee announced that a total of 190 pounds of keys was collected in four local collection depots.

Much valuable metal in the form of nicket steel has been gained by the collection and will be used in war industry for manufacturing ordnance. The drive was part of Daly City's campaign for all scrap metals. Keys which have long been separated from their locks were deposited in quart milk bottles where collections were made. Following were the places where keys were donated: Bank of America, Colma branch, San Pedro road near Mission street; Bank of America, Daly City branch, 6298 Mission street; McGraw Brothers pharmacy, 6300 Mission street; and Central Creamery, 6331 Mission street.

At the same time the survey was made, R. L. Crane jr., salvage chairman, announced that proceeds amounting to $463 were gained by the salvage committee for collection of scrap metal here. This collection was made in a house to house canvass of the community on two successive Sundays. The proceeds will be turned over to the city.

I shall through no act of mine destroy that confidence and shall always strive to administer the affairs of your court fairly and impartially.

Thanking you again, I am

THE COFFEE BLUES

Now coffee, along with her oddly-assorted comrades—new automobiles, bicycles, gasoline, heavy rubber boots and shoes, tires, and typewriters—has the wistful charm of being officially declared hard-to-get. It seems to us that our morning cup never tasted and cmelled so good as it did today. Grandfather was right when he said, "Blessings brighten as they pass."

One pound every five weeks is to be our ration. That means about forty cups, and forty cups for 35 days is going to make some drastic changes in the great American breakfast tradition. If you're a two- or three-cupper, and don't want the fatal November 29 to hit you all at once, now's the time to start tapering off.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

IF YOU were asked to select the ninety-three most important living American authors, whom would you select? Whit Burnett, the editor of Story Magazine, was faced with this problem not so long ago when he decided to edit "This Is My Best," an anthology of outstanding American authors' choice of their most outstanding work. "This Is My Best" will be distributed next month by the Book-of-the-Month Club as a dividend for November and December.

WHIT BURNETT

He didn't have to trouble about which piece of writing to select, since that, as the title indicates, was in each case left to the author. And of course, he knew which writers he himself liked best. But he wanted to get other people's opinions. Accordingly he inaugurated a very comprehensive survey. He sent a list of some 150 contemporary authors to booksellers, librarians, literary reviewers and also authors, teachers, and public figures—some 20,000 in all. Those canvassed were asked to indicate their hundred choices and to write in any names that were not included in the ballot.

The person getting the top number of votes was Carl Sandburg, and next to him came John Steinbeck. Following these were Eugene O'Neill, Ernest Hemingway, and next came three women authors: Willa Cather, Pearl Buck, and Edna St. Vincent Millay. Others rating a high place in this list were: Sinclair Lewis, Stephen Vincent Benét, Christopher Morley, Carl Van Doren, Robert Frost and Thornton Wilder.

The true Ozarkian, Marguerite Lyon remarks in her book "And Green Grass Grows All Around," has a sense of humor that is sometimes difficult for outsiders to understand. As an example of this, she tells about one of her friends who was hunting in the hills, and like most city people in Ozark woods, he became lost. He finally stumbled onto a back-country road, and in sheer desperation walked along it, hoping it would lead him to some familiar highway. After walking some time, he came upon an old man sitting on the fence, just looking. "Good morning," said the lost hunter. "I seem to be a bit confused in my directions. Where does this road go?" The old man took the pipe out of his mouth, spat at a weed, and said, "I bin here nigh onto forty-nine years, and it hain't went no place yit!" Whereupon he put the pipe back in his mouth, and continued to look out over the scenery.

Modern financiers should be interested in this account of how a bank came into being in the Gold Rush Days in Nevada, as related by Edwin Corle, in his novel "Coarse Gold." Here it is in the words of the president of the bank, Roland Fredericks (who at a later date was to walk out the back door of his bank, with what remained of its assets): "I rented a store which was nothing but a board floor and canvas walls and put out a sign: BANK. It seemed as good a business as any in this new community . . . I opened my bank at ten o'clock in the morning, and by late afternoon I had accumulated a total of six hundred and twenty-four dollars on deposit to which I had issued temporary deposit slips to twenty-two customers. Nobody asked any questions. The sign bearing the single word BANK was guarantee enough. At four o'clock in the afternoon I closed the door for the day. The 'bank' was so good that I decided to put my own five dollars in, which I did and thus I myself became my own twenty-third depositor . . . I don't know of any better way to start a bank."

Who, What, How At Jefferson Union High School

STAMP DRIVE

A new stamp and bond booth appeared, last week, in the corridor outside the auditorium. Replacing the old victory stand is "The Little Red School House", a red school house, with a white pointed roof from which flies a small flag.

James Ferguson, principal, originated the idea which was carried out by Truman Bentley's carpenters. Art students, under Mrs. Effie Anderson, decorated the stand.

At present a contest is raging between the freshman and sophomore classes to see which can buy the most stamps and bonds. Last Friday the score stood at $36.75 for the freshmen and $32.00 for the sophomores. The total sales for all classes up-to-date is $951.85.

ASSEMBLIES

Anchors Aweigh! Last Tuesday, Navy Day, Lieutenant Robert Fort, of the Naval Aviation Cadet Selection board, sailed out to Jeff and spoke on Naval aviation. The fellas, in particular, enjoyed this program. Lieutenant Fort stressed the fact that boys can now enter without a college education, if they can pass the mental and physical examination. But they must be high school graduates.

Tuesday, John Roger Deas, executive secretary of the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce, appeared at the assembly and spoke on the War Stamp and Bond Drive. Deas is a special representative of the Treasury department.

CLUBS

Twenty-five members of the Natural History club whooped it up, last Saturday night, at an old-fashioned Hallowe'en party given at the home of John Harville, sponsor of the organization. Sunday, the group took a field trip to Pedro Point, south of Sharp Park. Insects were collected to build up the museum at school.

Photography club is busy taking campus shots of football games, dramas, assemblies, dances, etc., and selling the pictures to the students.

SPORTS

When a hockey stick and shin bone meet, a nasty bruise is apt to result. Ask Miss Claire Nace, physical education instructor, she knows!

A week prior to Thanksgiving will see several tournaments starting in after school sports. To start, there will be hockey and archery tournaments. With 20 staunch supporters turning out for tennis, a club will be organized to function throughout the year.

A representative from the San Mateo County Red Cross will demonstrate to the life saving class, today, the use of small water craft in life saving.

Soldavini Serves On SF Draft Board

When the San Francisco Call-Bulletin ran a feature on Draft Board 98 of San Francisco, October 17, M. J. Soldavini, general manager of Belli Motor company, Mission and Market streets, Daly City, was shown in the news photo. Soldavini makes his home in San Francisco and serves as a draft board member of Board 98.

The article pointed out that service as a draft board member is a "thankless, loyal duty", and that when the war is over it is more than possible that countrymen of draft board members will place them high on the list of those who helped to win the war.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Messina, Daly City, are the proud parents of a daughter, born, October 29, in San Francisco.

THERE IS NO CEILING ON SAVINGS AT SAFEWAY

Prices in this ad are effective Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, in San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Richmond, Hayward, and other cities and towns in San Mateo, Alameda & Contra Costa Counties.

READ WHY SAFEWAY CEILING PRICES ARE LOW

First, what is a ceiling price? A store's ceiling price is the highest price that may be charged by that particular store for those items governed by the ceiling price law.

Second, why aren't ceiling prices the same in all stores? Under the regulations each store establishes its own price ceilings within the limitations of the law. The ceiling price law fixes an amount above which prices may not go, but without restrictions as to how low prices may go.

Why Safeway ceiling prices are low! Because every Safeway price has been a very low price month after month, Safeway ceiling prices are naturally very low. For years Safeway has waged war on needless waste in distributing foods... cut out unnecessary expense ... eliminated frills. And the savings thus made have been shared with our customers by giving them low prices. The ceiling price regulations will not, in any way, alter Safeway's policy of bringing you the finest foods the markets offer at the lowest possible prices.

Safeway is cooperating with the Government's effort to prevent inflation by rigidly adhering to the spirit as well as the letter of the ceiling price regulations.

AND there is no ceiling as to the number of War Bonds and Stamps you should buy, regularly. Put your savings, at least 10% of your income, into War Bonds and help win the war.

Shop early in the week... avoid crowds... and save money, too!

At The District Grammar Schools

AT CROCKER

Pupils of Room 2 recently saw slides showing "Life in the Pacific States". Many views of places familiar to pupils were shown in the slides.

Jack Palmer, Crocker pupil enrolled in the high fifth grade, was transferred from Crocker school two weeks ago.

Room 3 pupils recently enjoyed seeing a film on wool, a subject which they have been studying in their social science period.

Dale Blaisdell, Room 4, has transferred to Seattle, Washington, where he will attend school.

During the social science period, the pupils of Room 4 were shown an interesting sound film, "Touring Brazil", showing the life and customs of South America. This film is part of the study of the unit, "The Americas".

Room 4 children listen each week to a very interesting radio program on current news informally reviewed and analyzed by Dwight Newton, commentator.

The following four additional names were added to Crocker's "Ship of Tin" crew: Captain David King, and Peggy Chamberlain, Alexander between Templeton and Roosevelt streets; Admiral Erwin Shelmadine and Captain Edward Young, Sadowa to Montano. The tin collection for the four weeks of October showed the following results: first week, 39 boxes, two bags and two large cans; second week, 87 boxes, three bags, and two large cans; third week, 58 boxes, two bags, and two large cans; fourth week, 37 boxes.

AT WOODROW

Showing a quick response to the fire alarm, three hundred pupils of the Woodrow Wilson elementary school cleared the building in an orderly manner in less than two minutes, during a recent drill. They remained in their places of safety until the signal was given for them to return to their classrooms.

The block lieutenants from Woodrow Wilson school were reported to be doing an excellent job of collecting scrap metal.

As an introduction to the study unit, "The Americas", pupils of Room 4 have undertaken a brief study of Indian culture.

Four new pupils entered the low and high sixth grades last week. They are: Bill Borger, from Arizona; Evelyn Howard, from San Francisco; Walter Lowe, from Massachusetts, and Harold Cook, from Stockton.

Eugene Bright, former pupil in Room 5, has been transferred to a school in Seattle, Washington.

Hot Puddings For Cool Days

By Frances Lee Barton

WHILE plum pudding is an old holiday favorite, any hot pudding is an ideal dessert when there is a chill in the air and our bodies are clamoring for additional fuel.

The following pudding recipe is presented with my assurance that it will merit a place in your permanent recipe file — if you try it but once:

Chocolate Chip Queen Pudding

3 cups ½-inch cubes stale cake; ¼ cup sugar; ¼ teaspoon salt; 2 egg yolks and 2 eggs; 3 cups scalded milk; ¾ teaspoon rum extract or 1 teaspoon vanilla; ½ package semi-sweet chocolate chips.

2 egg whites; dash of salt; 4 tablespoons sugar.

Place cake in greased 8½ inch casserole. Add ¼ cup sugar and ¼ teaspoon salt to eggs and beat slightly; then add milk and flavoring. Pour over cake and mix well. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 50 minutes.

Sprinkle chips over top and cover with meringue. To make meringue, beat egg whites with salt until foamy throughout. Then add 4 tablespoons sugar gradually, beating after each addition until sugar is blended; continue beating until mixture will stand in peaks. Return pudding to oven and bake 12 minutes longer. Serve warm.

Emydian Institute Plan Public Whist

Chairman of the whist is Mrs. Raye Grondona who announces that there will be a cash first prize as well as many other valuable awards.

Miss Helen Callan has been appointed chairman of the Christmas stocking drive. Stockings will be filled by the members of the society and presented to the Sisters of the Holy Family for distribution at Christmas time.

At last Friday's Hallowe'en social, chaplain Father James Sorasio and Deputy Katherine Fitzpatrick were greeted. Attention was called to members having birthdays in the month of October by Lenore Varni, president.

A Poetic Relish

By Frances Lee Barton

A horse radish relish
Is the thing to embellish
A dish of cold meat
Or a slice of baked ham.
It's served chilled and molded
It's a joy to behold it
And as for the flavor,
Well! "It's a grand slam".

Horse-radish Relish

1 package lemon-flavored gelatin; 1 cup hot water; 1 tablespoon vinegar; ¾ teaspoon salt; 1 teaspoon scraped onion; ¾ cup drained prepared horse-radish; 1 cup cream, whipped.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add vinegar, salt, and onion. Chill. When slightly thickened, fold in horse-radish and cream. Turn into mold. Chill until firm. Serve with baked ham or cold meat. Serves 10.

These Biscuits Are "Honies"

By Frances Lee Barton

NOT one grain of your precious sugar supply is required for a batch of hot honey biscuits. Those who crave biscuits often or insist upon serving them to guests will appreciate the following carefully tested recipe:

Honey Biscuits

2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; ½ teaspoon salt; 5 tablespoons butter or other shortening; ½ cup milk.

4 tablespoons butter; ½ cup honey.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add milk all at once and stir carefully until all flour is dampened. Then stir vigorously until mixture forms a soft dough and follows spoon around bowl. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead 30 seconds. Roll ⅓ inch thick and cut with floured 2¼ inch biscuit cutter. Bake on ungreased baking sheet in hot oven (450° F.) 12 to 15 minutes.

Cream butter, add honey, and blend. Remove biscuits from oven; split in halves. Spread with honey mixture. Put halves together and serve with remaining honey mixture. Makes 18 biscuits.

Those attending included: Mrs. McDonough, Mrs. Helen Rode, Mrs. Elizabeth Powers, Mrs. Grace Bacigalupi, Mrs. Katherine Phelan, Mrs. Lena Walden, Mrs. J. Johnson, Mrs. Kate Core, Mrs. Theresa Willie, Mrs. Joseph Crudo, and Mrs. Ida Grummel.

Pershing Installs Two New Officers

Mrs. Stella Jensen, president of Seventeenth district, C. C. P. T., conducted a question box as guest speaker, at the regular meeting of General Pershing P. T. A., Tuesday afternoon at Pershing school. The unit's program, which began at 1:30 p. m., was presided over by President Mrs. Mildred Rasor.

The class demonstration was presented by Mrs. Margaret Clarke's pupils.

Two new officers were installed at the meeting by Mrs. Jensen. They were Mrs. Ruth Canier, as financial secretary, and Mrs. Sadie Welsh as parliamentarian. They were recently elected by the executive board to replace Mrs. Mildred McKenna and Mrs. Nora Clifton, who had resigned. Mrs. McKenna is moving to Sebastopol and Mrs. Clifton has gone into defense work. The unit expressed their regret at the loss of these officers.

Mrs. Rasor appointed Mrs. Sophia Evans, vice-president, to a post as publicity chairman at the meeting. Refreshments were served.

The unit opened the school cafeteria, Monday, and there was a large attendance. The P. T. A. conducts the lunch program every school day during the winter months. A cook and two helpers, from among the unit members, are in charge each day.

The Hallowe'en party, Friday, for youngsters of Pershing school was a success. The committee had cleverly arranged the decorations and games for the occasion.

An intent audience listened to Warren as he discussed with intelligent deliberation many of the important campaign issues—the calling of the state legislature to a special war-time session, the preparing of defenses against enemy assault, and the working out of industrial and agricultural problems to the ends of greater production to help win the war. He continued by pointing out the need of maintaining morale on the home front. Governmental powers, which have been removed because of emergency conditions, will again be returned to the people when the war is over, Warren assured.

At the conclusion of Warren's talk, his audience burst into a rising ovation with much applause. Another celebrity present at Monday's meeting was the movie star, Leo Carillo, a staunch Warren supporter. Carillo brought laughter from the audience with his gay, witty repartee during the introduction. Although Carillo is one of Hollywood's topflight funsters, his talk, Monday, was not comedy. Against a backdrop of a long line of early California ancestry and a current, sincere interest in state affairs, Carillo strongly recommended his friend of long standing, Earl Warren.

Inaugurate Victory Corps Program At Jefferson High

A Victory Corps program, soon to be introduced in all high schools throughout the nation, was outlined at the recent GPAL meeting held at Palo Alto. Miss Ella Redkey and Miss Claire Nace, physical education instructors, represented Jefferson Union high school at this conference.

In an effort to make high school students aware of the definite part they can play during the war, a Victory Corps will be formed, to be composed of every eligible student in every high school in the United States.

High schools are a potential source of manpower, it was pointed out. A large majority of boys, 16 and 17 years old, and girls must be prepared for military service or to go into industries filling the jobs vacated by persons who have gone into the armed forces.

The basis for membership in the Victory Corps is uniform throughout the country. All students, regardless of age, enrolled in high school are eligible if they are already participating in a physical fitness program and currently participating in at least one important continuing or recurring war activity or service.

The five service divisions in the Victory Corps are Air Service, Land Service, Sea Service, Production Service, and Community Service. Miss Nace pointed out that it is in the last two divisions that the girls at Jefferson would participate, the first three being for the boys.

Air, Land, and Sea divisions emphasize courses in mathematics, sciences, and participation in physical fitness or military drill.

Members of the Production Service division should be preparing for service in war industry, agriculture, or other essential civilian production occupations, as distinguished from service occupations.

Members of the Community Service division should be planning for work in community or other service occupations.

RAID DRILL

hall in Colma as being "blown up" by enemy bombs. First aid squads, rescue squads, and demolition squads were rushed to the scene. Two pieces of fire apparatus were called out. The other major incident by the inspection team again sent the control board in the city hall into action calling out all services. It cited a bombing and incendiary fires in a block on Winchester stree. Four or five houses were "burning from incendiary fires". Quick action from all services brought the supposed disaster under control.

The other sixteen incidents in the inspection drill were planned by Eugene V. Lynch, local communications officer, and Howard McHugh, control board operator.

Leading members of the inspection board besides Price were: Thomas Hunter, state chief of the Bureau of Criminal Investigation; Lieutenant Weston C. Cross, California State Guard; Dr. Morton R. Gibbons, Emergency Medical Unit, State Council of Defense; and Dr. F. E. Frates, Emergency Medical Unit, San Mateo County Defense Council.

for all motorists at service stations in Daly City, the board said.

Only service stations throughout San Mateo county will issue the application blanks. It was previously announced by the board that local post offices would also give out the blanks. Since the San Mateo County Rationing board has ruled that service stations will distribute the blanks, they will not be available at the Daly City branch post office as previously stated.

Motorist must fill these blanks out before appearing at the schools for the registration, Thursday, Friday, or Saturday, November 12, 13, 14. They may register at the school nearest their homes.

Before appearing for the registration, the motorist must prepare for it in the following manner to avoid delay or confusion at the time of registering:

1. If you have more than five tires for your passenger car, pick out the best five and sell the rest to the government. They will pay ceiling prices for the tires and they will be picked up if you call the San Francisco Railway Express agency, Exbrook 3100.

2. Note the serial numbers of the five tires you intend to keep as that information is required by registrars when they fill out your ration card.

3. Pick up the mileage rationing application blank at any local service station and fill it out. Also fill out the tire inspection sheet which accompanies it.

4. When you go to the schools to register, take with you the filled out application blank and the state registration card or "white slip for the vehicle you intend to register. If you are registering more than one vehicle, take the "white slip" for each.

5. Keep the tire inspection sheet, which the registrar will detach from your application blank. You will need this sheet when you get the periodic tire inspections.

Every motorist who registers will receive an "A" card, which entitles him to 240 miles travel per month at the rate of fifteen miles to a gallon of gasoline, or four gallons per week.

If you can prove that you need your car for your job and that there is no other means of adequate transportation to your work, you are entitled to a "B" card, which entitles you to 320 additional miles each month. Including the "A" card, you would be able to travel 560 miles per month in this case.

"C" coupon books are offered to drivers in a preferred mileage category—persons whose cars are necessary for vital war work.

Ask Housewives To Save Grease, Fat

Increased manufacture of war ammunition in America was cited this week as a stronger reason than ever for housewives to turn in all the waste fats and greases from their kitchens.

High explosives and other ammunition are manufactured from glycerin obtained from these waste fats and greases, since the nation's supply of foreign vegetable oils was cut off by the enemy.

Local meat markets which have been collecting waste fats and greases are: Milo's Market, 6315 Mission street; Dave's Meat Market, Colma; Colma Meat Market; Farmers Meat company, 6386 Mission street, and Safeway Stores Inc., 6318 Mission street.

The San Mateo County Salvage committee, headed by Theodore M. Lilienthal, announced that, in the whole county, over twenty thousand pounds of fats and greases were turned in to meat dealers, up until October 1. Sale of the material to processing plants brought $57, which was donated to the USO, last week.

Method of collecting in Daly City varies, however, and housewives who turn in waste fats and greases here are paid 3 cents a pound. Even so, R. L. Crane jr., local chairman, has placed collection bottles for the USO in each market for voluntary donations of the pennies received by housewives for fats.
